NEW & REVISED EDITION

Shamanism
Traditional and Contemporary
Approaches to the
Mastery of Spirits and Healing

Merete Demant Jakobsen†

"The book is clearly written, and contains some wonderfully vivid quotations from texts that have never previously appeared in English ... Much valuable and suggestive material ... of value to scholars and students." · Ethnos

This book breaks new ground by examining pristine shamanism in Greenland, among people contacted late by Western missionaries and settlers. On the basis of material only available in Danish, and presented herein English for the first time, the author questions Mircea Eliade's well-known definition of the shaman as the master of ecstasy and suggests that his role has to be seen as that of a master of spirits.

Transforming Study Abroad

A Handbook

Neriko Musha Doerr, Ramapo College

"This is an important contribution to the literature of international education. It deconstructs unexamined orthodoxies and proposes alternative ways of thinking about study abroad that could enrich the theoretical basis for this form of education, and lead practitioners to review what and how they teach."
· Michael Woolf, CAPA, The Global Education Network

Written for study abroad practitioners, this book introduces theoretical understandings of key study abroad terms including "the global/national," "culture," "native speaker," "immersion," and "host society." Building theories on these notions with perspectives from cultural anthropology, political science, educational studies, linguistics, and narrative studies, it suggests ways to incorporate them in study abroad practices.

Techniques, Technology and Civilization
Marcel Mauss

Edited and with an Introduction by Nathan Schlanger, AREA project at the INHA

"The appearance of these two essays... in English for the first time attests to the continuing interest in Marcel Mauss and the fact that re-readings of his work still provide not only fertile ground for new interpretations of the Durkheimian school in general, but also a source of inspiration for scholars approaching Mauss as a remarkably contemporary voice still speaking in many ways to current issues in sociology and anthropology." • Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute

This book will interest scholars and students dealing with the French sociological tradition, and also more generally those concerned with technology and material culture studies in archaeological, anthropological or contemporary settings.

Seeing the Holocaust

Nadine Fresco

In December of 1941, on a beach near the Latvian city of Liepāja, Nazi death squads and local collaborators murdered over 2,700 Jews. The Liepāja killings remain well-remembered today thanks to photographic evidence that was secretly copied from SS negatives. In this trenchant meditation on the Liepāja images, Nadine Fresco argues for the vital importance of photographs—and nontraditional sources more broadly—for understanding the Holocaust.

João Pedro Marques

Edited by Seymour Drescher, University of Pittsburgh and

Pieter C. Emmer, University of Leiden

Marques, one of the leading historians of slavery and abolition, argues that, in most cases, it is impossible to establish a direct relation between slaves' uprisings and the emancipation laws that would be approved in the western countries. Following this presentation, his arguments are taken up by a dozen of the most outstanding historians in this field.
