9780295746302 £79.00 / $95.00 HB

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON PRESS

Axis of Hope recounts activists' struggles through critical analysis of their narratives. Catherine Sameh examines how Iranian women's rights activists have cultivated ways of thinking of and being with each other that rupture the relentless difference-making and violence of coloniality through local and transnational networks along axes of feminist solidarity, friendship, and love. These stories are particularly germane in such precarious times, marked by war, isolation, sanctions, and the intense demonization of Iranians and Muslims, as well as authoritarianism, militarism, and patriarchal nationalisms around the world. Situating postreform women's rights activism within the unfolding, decades-long project to democratize Iran from within, Axis of Hope makes a timely contribution to studies of feminist movements, women's human rights in Muslim contexts, activism and new media, and the relationship between activism, civil society, and the state.

Defining Girlhood in India

A Transnational History of Sexual Maturity Laws

India has served as a focal problem site in NGO campaigns and intergovernmental conferences setting age standards for sexual maturity. Over the last century, the country shifted the legal age of marriage from twelve, among the lowest in the world, to eighteen, at the high end of the global spectrum. Ashwini Tambe illuminates the ideas that shaped such shifts: how the concept of adolescence as a sheltered phase led to delaying both marriage and legal adulthood; how the imperative of population control influenced laws on marriage age; and how imperial moral hierarchies between nations provoked defensive postures within India. Tambe takes a transnational feminist approach to legal history, showing how intergovernmental debates influenced Indian laws and how expert discourses in India changed UN terminology about girls. Ultimately, Tambe argues, the well-meaning focus on child marriage has been tethered less to the interests of girls themselves and more to parents' interests, achieving population control targets, and preserving national reputation.

Her Neighbor's Wife

A History of Lesbian Desire Within Marriage

LAUREN JAE GUTTERMAN

Politics and Culture in Modern America

December 2019 352pp 10 illus.

9780812251746 £34.00 / $39.95 HB

UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA PRESS

Through interviews, diaries, memoirs, and letters, Her Neighbor's Wife traces the stories of hundreds of women who struggled to balance marriage and same-sex desire in the postwar United States. In doing so, Lauren Jae Gutterman draws our attention away from the postwar landscape of urban gay communities and into the homes of married women, who tended to engage in affairs with the wives and mothers they met in the context of their daily lives: through work, at church, or in their suburban neighborhoods. In the late 1960s and 1970s, the lesbian feminist movement and no-fault divorce revolution transformed the lives of wives who desired women. Women could now choose to divorce their husbands in order to lead openly lesbian or bisexual lives; increasingly, however, these women were confronted by hostile state discrimination, typically in legal battles over child custody. By revealing the extent to which marriage has historically permitted space for wives' relationships with other women, Her Neighbor's Wife calls into question the presumed straightness of traditional American marriage.

What's the Use?

On the Uses of Use

9781478005841 £88.00 / $99.95 HB

DUKE UNIVERSITY PRESS

In What's the Use? Sara Ahmed continues the work she began in The Promise of Happiness and Willful Subjects by taking up a single word—in this case, use—and following it around. She shows how use became associated with life and strength in nineteenth-century biological and social thought and considers how utilitarianism offered a set of educational techniques for shaping individuals by directing them toward useful ends. Ahmed also explores how spaces become restricted to some uses and users with specific reference to universities. She notes, however, the potential for queer use: how things can be used in ways that were not intended or by those for whom they were not intended. Ahmed posits queer use as a way of reanimating the project of diversity work as the ordinary and painstaking work of opening up institutions to those who have historically been excluded from them.

What if laughter is a vital force to channel rage against patriarchy, Islamophobia, or mass incarceration? These and other such questions are at the heart of this powerful reassessment of humor. Placing theorists in conversation with comedians, Uproarious offers a full-frontal approach to the very foundation of comedy and its profound political impact.

Vexed with Devils

Manhood and Witchcraft in Old and New England

ERIKA GASSER

Early American Places

December 2019 272pp

9781479871131 £20.99 / $25.00 NIP

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY PRESS

Vexed with Devils is a cultural history of witchcraft-possession phenomena that centers on the role of men and patriarchal power. Erika Gasser reveals that witchcraft trials had as much to do with who had power in the community, to impose judgement or to subvert order, as they did with religious belief.

What Comes after Entanglement?

Activism, Anthropocentrism, and an Ethics of Exclusion

EVA HAIFA GIRAUD

A Cultural Politics book

October 2019 264pp

9781478006251 £23.99 / $26.95 PB

9781478005483 £88.00 / $99.95 HB

DUKE UNIVERSITY PRESS

Eva Haifa Giraud contends that recent theory that foregrounds the ways that human existence is entangled with other nonhuman life and the natural world often undermine successful action and calls for new modes of activist organizing and theoretical critique.

What God Is Honored Here?

Writings on Miscarriage and Infant Loss by and for Native Women and Women of Color

EDITED BY SHANNON GIBNEY & KAO KALIA YANG

October 2019 256pp 5 b&w photos

9781517907938 £16.99 / $19.95 PB

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA PRESS

What God Is Honored Here? is the first book of its kind—and urgently necessary. This is a literary collection of voices of Indigenous women and women of color who have undergone miscarriage and infant loss, experiences that disproportionately affect women who have often been cast toward the margins in the United States of America.

9781517905453 £86.00 / $100.00 HB

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA PRESS

Feminist phenomenologists have long understood a woman's life as inhibited, confined, and constrained by sexual violence. In this important inquiry, author Megan Burke both builds and expands on this legacy by examining the production of normative womanhood through racist tropes and colonial domination.

Anti-Electra

The Radical Totem of the Girl

ELISABETH VON SAMSONOW

TRANSLATED BY ANITA FRICEK & STEPHEN ZEPKE

Univocal

June 2019 216pp 6 b&w photos

9781517907136 £18.99 / $23.00 PB

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA PRESS

The author asserts that focusing on the escape of "the girl" from the Oedipus complex leads to a shift in our most common views on media and art. Anti-Electra offers a new view on gender, and the girl in dialogue with media, ecology, and society.

Expanding Frontiers: Interdisciplinary Approaches to Studies of Women, Gender, and Sexuality
May 2019 300pp 1 illus.
9781496212481 £24.99 / $30.00 PB
UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA PRESS

While "intersectionality" tends to circulate merely as a buzzword, Carastathis joins other critical voices in urging a more careful reading. Challenging the narratives of arrival that surround it, Carastathis argues that intersectionality is a horizon, illuminating ways of thinking that have yet to be realized.
