Since Hegel, philosophers have declared repeatedly that metaphysics is at an end, a pronouncement that has sparked much contemporary philosophical debate. John Sallis characterizes the end of metaphysics as a limit, or horizon, both enclosing metaphysical thought and opening the field of thinking beyond it.

DUKE UNIVERSITY PRESS

Literary and legal scholar

Elizabeth S. Anker contends that faith in the logic of paradox has been the cornerstone of left intellectualism since the second half of the twentieth century. Rather than calling for a wholesale abandonment of such reasoning, Anker urges for an expanded, diversified theory toolkit that can help theorists escape the seductions and traps of paradox.

Catholic Ideas for a Secular World

October 2022 550pp

9780268203702 £52.00/ $60.00 HB

UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME PRESS

Retrieving Freedom is a provocative, big-picture book, taking a long view of the "rise and fall" of the classical understanding of freedom. In response to the evident shortcomings of the notion of freedom that dominates contemporary discourse, Retrieving Freedom seeks to return to the sources of the Western tradition to recover a more adequate understanding.

Specters of God

An Anatomy of the Apophatic Imagination

John D. Caputo

October 2022 416pp

9780253063007 £73.00/ $85.00 HB

INDIANA UNIVERSITY PRESS

In dialogue with Schelling, a new turn for him and the lynchpin of this argument, Caputo addresses the nocturnal powers in being, the specters that haunt our being and bring us up short. Caputo returns to the original impulse of his work, the "mystical element" in things, here under the name of an "anxious apophatics," as distinct from an "edifying apophatics" anchored in unity with God.

Statelessness

On Almost Not Existing

Tony C. Brown

November 2022 312pp

9781517912413 £93.00/ $108.00 HB

A pathbreaking new genealogy of statelessness.

Statelessness asserts that Europe first encountered mass statelessness neither inside its borders nor during the twentieth century, but in the New World, several hundred years earlier. Through close readings of political philosophers, it argues that statelessness became a central problem for political thought early on, with far-reaching implications for thinking both on the state and on being human.

9781531501808 £77.00/ $90.00 HB

FORDHAM UNIVERSITY PRESS

In Sufi Deleuze, Michael Muhammad Knight engages

Deleuzian questions and themes from within Islamic tradition. Even if Deleuze did not think of himself as a theologian, Knight argues, to place Deleuze in conversation with Islam is a project of comparative theology and faces the challenge of any comparative theology: it seemingly demands that complex, internally diverse traditions can speak as coherent, monolithic wholes.
