

Macmillan Explorers

Hundreds of online books for an entire undergraduate course, all in one place

Macmillan Explorers are innovative new digital resources providing university students with unlimited access to our high-quality eTextbooks for the duration of their undergraduate degree.

Students can access hundreds of relevant textbooks expertly curated into courses aligned to the key areas of their studies.

Explorers currently offer support in the following subjects:

- Computer Science - available now
- History - coming in 2018
- Politics - available now
- Literature - coming in 2018

Using Macmillan Explorers you can...

Access offline on up to four devices

Save bookmarks

Print pages

Export notes & highlights to OneNote

Why choose Macmillan Explorers?

Benefits for academics

- Students get access to high-quality textbooks
- Guide your class through required and recommended reading
- Share your book notes with students
- Send your students links to pages and chapters
- Encourage your students to read around their subject

Benefits for students

- Your own personal online copy of each textbook
- Study anywhere with offline access on up to four devices
- Save time and effort by syncing notes, highlights and bookmarks
- View notes and highlights from classmates and instructors
- Print chapters and pages easily

Interested?

Sign up for a faculty trial today