BANKING AND FINANCIAL LAW

THIRD EDITION

European Capital Markets Law

Edited by Rüdiger Veil

The fully updated edition of this user-friendly textbook continues to systematise the European law governing capital markets and examines the underlying concepts from a broadly interdisciplinary perspective. The 3rd edition deals with 3 central developments: the project of the capital markets union; sustainable finance; and the further digitalisation of financial instruments and securities markets.

Throughout the book emphasis is placed on legal practice, and frequent reference is made to the key decisions of supervisory authorities and courts.

Essential reading for students involved in the study of capital markets law and financial law.

Rüdiger Veil holds the Chair for Civil Law and Business Law at Ludwig-Maximilians-Universität, Munich, Germany.

March 2022 | 9781509942114 | 792pp | Pbk | RRP: £59.99

COMPANY, CORPORATE AND COMMERCIAL LAW

SECOND EDITION

Great Debates in Company Law

Lorraine Talbot and Andreas Kokkinis

A lively and highly valuable discussion regarding the key debates in modern UK company law. The central great debate, that of 'what is the company?' is at the heart of this book, which in turn raises questions over what the purpose of the company is and whose interests are paramount?

Discussions around what we produce as a society and for whose benefit we produce are explored, along with the progression of global development, and how this impacts the environment, social cohesion and human rights.

Lorraine Talbot is Professor of Company Law in Context and Andreas Kokkinis is an Associate Professor, both at the University of Birmingham, UK.

March 2024 | 9781350440272 | 208pp | Pbk | RRP: £33.99

Key Ideas in Commercial Law

William Day

This book unpacks the themes and controversies that pervade commercial law. Commercial law ultimately involves the taking and allocation of two types of risk: the risk of inadequate or non-performance of agreed obligations, and the risk that counterparties will lack the financial means to pay what is owed. This book explores key ideas in commercial law through five topics: trade, transacting, title, performance risk, and credit risk.

William Day is a barrister at 3 Verulam Buildings, UK, and Fellow of Downing College, Cambridge, UK.

June 2023 | 9781509944224 | 184pp | Pbk | RRP: £12.99

NINTH EDITION

Company Law

Janet Dine and Marios Koutsias

The 9th edition of Dine and Koutsias' popular textbook offers an exceptionally clear yet thoroughly comprehensive analysis of the legal framework in which companies operate. Updated with the latest developments in law and case-law, it goes beyond black letter analysis to explain important concepts such as corporate governance and multinational corporations in an international context. Including up-to-date material on directors' duties and derivative claims, and with expansive pedagogy including key terms, case notes, end-of-chapter summaries, further reading suggestions and end-of-chapter exercises, this is the ideal companion for all students of company law.

Janet Dine is Professor of International Economic Development Law at Queen Mary, University of London, UK. Marios Koutsias is Senior Lecturer in EU Commercial Law and Company Law at the University of Essex, UK.

April 2020 | 9781352010008 | 307pp | Pbk | RRP: £38.99

THIRD EDITION

Corporate Finance Law

Principles and Policy

Louise Gullifer and Jennifer Payne

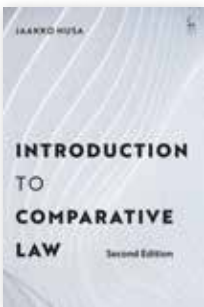

The 3rd edition of this acclaimed textbook continues to provide a discussion of key theoretical and policy issues in corporate finance law. Focussing in equal measure on the equity and debt sides, it addresses a broad range of topics regarding the debt and equity-raising choices of companies of all sizes, and the mechanisms by which those providing capital are protected. Each chapter provides a critical analysis of the present law to enable the reader to understand the difficulties, risks and tensions in this area, and the attempts by the legislature, regulators, courts, and the parties involved, to deal with them.

Louise Gullifer is Rouse Ball Professor of English Law, University of Cambridge, UK. Jennifer Payne is Linklaters Professor of Corporate Finance Law, University of Oxford, UK.

March 2020 | 9781509929177 | 1000pp | Pbk | RRP: £59.99

COMPARATIVE LAW

SECOND EDITION

Introduction to Comparative Law

Jaakko Husa

This textbook presents a clear and thought-provoking introduction to the study of comparative law.

The book provides students with in-depth analyses of the major global comparative methodologies and theories. Written in a lively style, it leads the student through debates in comparative legal scholarship, both in the Western world and in the lesser studied jurisdictions, beyond Europe and North America.

The 2nd edition includes a revised structure to help the student understand the subject, an updated introductory chapter, and new material on legal transplants and globalisation.

Jaakko Husa is Professor of Law and Globalisation at the University of Helsinki, Finland.

May 2023 | 9781509963560 | 312pp | Pbk | RRP: £33.99

COMPETITION LAW

EIGHTH EDITION

EU Competition Law

An Analytical Guide to the Leading Cases

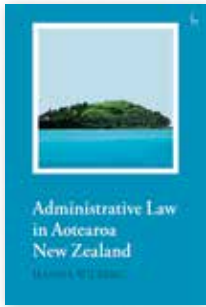

Ariel Ezrachi

This unique book is designed as a working tool for the study and practice of European competition law. It includes a rigorous analysis of over 500 of the leading cases that shape the scope of EU Competition Law.

The 8th edition reviews recent judgments from the European Court of Justice and decisions from the European Commission on the scope of object and effects-based analysis, abuse of dominance, and merger control. It examines developments in the appraisal of vertical and horizontal agreements, enforcement powers, and the interface between new instruments, such as the DMA and DSA, and competition law enforcement.

Ariel Ezrachi is the Slaughter and May Professor of Competition Law at the University of Oxford, UK.

June 2024 | 9781509973378 | 912pp | Pbk | RRP: £49.99

Administrative Law in Aotearoa New Zealand

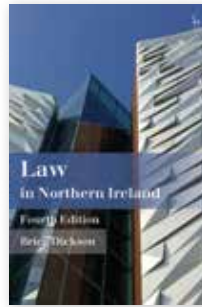

Hanna Wilberg

A concise yet scholarly introduction to the principles of administrative law in Aotearoa New Zealand that has so far been unavailable. It elucidates the structure and principles of the law in this area, identifies underlying tensions, and outlines current trends and debates. It also presents a unified account of administrative law as a whole, beyond judicial review.

The principles-based guide that law students need to succeed in their academic study, it is equally helpful to judges and practitioners, and to academic and professional audiences beyond New Zealand, seeking a sophisticated understanding of the subject.

Hanna Wilberg is Associate Professor of Law at the University of Auckland, New Zealand.

November 2024 | 9781509930906 | 352pp | Pbk | RRP: £35

FOURTH EDITION

Law in Northern Ireland

Brice Dickson

Presenting a thorough examination of the law in Northern Ireland, this textbook guides students through the evolution of law-making, the legislative process, courts, and case law. This edition includes discussion of the effect of Brexit on the legal system and the implications of the recent UK-wide reviews of administrative law and the Human Rights Act 1998.

Brice Dickson is Emeritus Professor of International and Comparative Law at Queen's University Belfast, Northern Ireland, UK.

July 2022 | 9781509961207 | 536pp | Pbk | RRP: £42.99

Key Ideas in Law: The Rule of Law and the Separation of Powers

Jack Beatson

Written by one of the leading public lawyers of our day, this book considers the rule of law and separation of powers by examining the relationships between the different branches and the mechanisms of accountability within our democracy.

Prompted by events following the 2016 referendum, the book answers the following questions: How accessible is the law and how does it avoid arbitrariness? How is access to justice protected? How does our constitution reflect the separation of powers and the balance of responsibilities between law and politics? How does our democracy enable majorities and protect minorities?

Jack Beatson was a High Court Judge between 2003 and 2013 and a Lord Justice of Appeal between 2013 and 2018. He was previously a Law Commissioner and Rouse Ball Professor of English Law at the University of Cambridge, UK.

July 2021 | 9781509938773 | 192pp | Pbk | RRP: £15.99

EIGHTH EDITION

The Law-Making Process

Michael Zander

As a critical, in-depth analysis of the law-making process, this book has no equal.

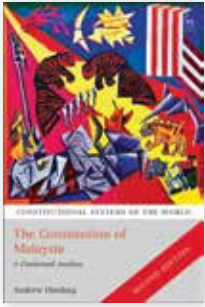

It deals with all the stages and forms of law-making:

- the preparation of legislation;
- its passage through Parliament;
- statutory interpretation;
- the operation of the rules of precedent in judicial decision-making;
- the many facets of judicial law-making; and
- the machinery of law reform.

The new 8th edition covers the operation of EU law in the UK after Brexit. It also covers pre-Brexit events such as the unprecedented legislation by backbench MPs to stop a No Deal Exit from the EU and the two great Supreme Court decisions over the triggering of Brexit and the prorogation of Parliament.

Michael Zander KC is Emeritus Professor at the London School of Economics and Political Science, UK. For 25 years he was also Legal Correspondent at The Guardian.

June 2020 | 9781509934539 | 560pp | Pbk | RRP: £54.99

SECOND EDITION

The Constitution of Malaysia

Andrew Harding

This is a much-welcome new edition of the seminal introduction to Malaysia's constitution by the leading expert in the field. Retaining its comprehensive approach, it examines constitutional governance in light of authoritarianism and continuing inter-communal strife, as well as examining the impact of colonisation on Malaysia's legal public law structure.

Updated throughout to include all statutory and case law developments, it also retains its socio-political perspective. A must read for all students and scholars of Malaysian law.

Andrew Harding is Professor of Law at the National University of Singapore, Singapore.

May 2022 | 9781509927432 | 288pp | Pbk | RRP: £26.99

The Constitution of Canada

A Contextual Analysis

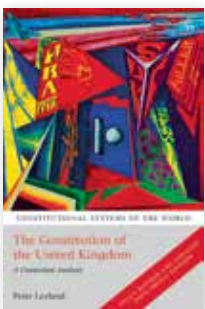

Jeremy Webber

The first edition of this text quickly established itself as the classic introduction to the Canadian constitution. Setting it in its historical context, noting especially the complex interaction of national and regional societies, it shows how the constitution continues to morph and shape itself.

These changes are explored through key constitutional themes: democracy; parliamentarism; the rule of law; federalism; human rights; and Indigenous rights, and describes the country that has resulted from the interplay of these themes. This is the ideal starting point for students or comparative lawyers keen to gain an understanding of how Canadian democracy and government works.

Jeremy Webber is Professor of Law, University of Victoria, British Columbia, Canada.

July 2021 | 9781509947171 | 296pp | Pbk | RRP: £27.99

The Constitution of the United Kingdom

A Contextual Analysis

Peter Leyland

Who could have imagined when the last edition of this acclaimed book published in 2016, the constitutional earthquakes that were to follow. Brexit, Miller, three prime ministers: little of the United Kingdom's constitution was unaffected.

This much needed new edition retains its hallmark clarity and coherence, with sufficient detail for the novice to develop an informed view of how the constitution works.

This significantly updated edition provides a topical and contextual outline of the principles, doctrines and institutions that underpin the United Kingdom constitution. It explores Brexit, devolution, the Fixed Term Parliament Act, parliamentary sovereignty, and House of Lords reform.

Peter Leyland is Professor of Public Law at SOAS, University of London, UK.

July 2021 | 9781509945542 | 336pp | Pbk | RRP: £21.99

Tort Law: Cases and Materials

Sarah Green and Jodi Gardner

With extracts of the key cases, articles, statutes and other materials in tort law, Tort Law: Cases and Materials is the perfect companion to Green and Gardner's Tort Law textbook. It provides helpful summary and reading guidance – with clear explanations for some of the more difficult to read extracts, students will gain an enhanced understanding of the material ensuring they can respond with depth and analysis in their essay questions.

The book has been designed specifically around decolonising the curriculum, ensuring that there are alternative voices, including feminist approaches, socio-legal perspectives, and comparative material from multiple international jurisdictions.

Sarah Green is the Law Commissioner for Commercial and Common Law at the Law Commission of England and Wales, UK. Jodi Gardner is the Brian Coote Chair in Private Law at the University of Auckland, New Zealand.

June 2024 | 9781509971893 | 528pp | Pbk | RRP: £42.99

FOURTH EDITION

Contract Law

An Introduction to the English Law of Contract for the Civil Lawyer

John Cartwright

The 4th edition of this acclaimed textbook addresses the developments in English contract law since the last edition, including the impact of the withdrawal of the UK from the European Union, and new case law on the role of good faith, the doctrine of consideration, rectification of written contracts for mistake, economic duress, illegality, contractual interpretation, and damages for breach of contract.

The book explains the principles of the law of contract in English law covering all the aspects of a contract from its formation to the remedies available for breach.

John Cartwright is Emeritus Professor of the Law of Contract at the University of Oxford, UK.

August 2023 | 9781509971800 | 376pp | Pbk | RRP: £34.99

FIFTEENTH EDITION

Contract Law

Ewan McKendrick

Now in its 15th edition, Ewan McKendrick's bestselling textbook provides a clear account of all the basic rules of contract law, including the formation of a contract, what goes into a contract and how to enforce a contract. Its numerous real-world examples and 'Hot Topic' discussion points, covering issues such as Brexit's effect on contract law and the controversial debate as to whether English law recognises the duty of good faith, makes it the essential companion for all undergraduate and postgraduate students of contract law, preparing them not only for their exams, but also for their professional legal careers.

Ewan McKendrick KC (Hon) is Professor of English Private Law at the University of Oxford, UK, and Professor of Anglo-American Private Law at the University of Leiden, the Netherlands.

April 2023 | 9781350355187 | 536pp | Pbk | RRP: £35.99

SEVENTH EDITION

A Casebook on Contract

Andrew Burrows

This is the 7th, fully updated, edition of Professor Burrows' casebook, offering law students the ideal way to discover and understand contract law through reading highlights from the leading cases.

The book covers the undergraduate contract law course in a series of clearly presented and carefully structured chapters. The author provides an expert introduction to each topic and his succinct notes and questions seek to guide students to a proper understanding of the cases. The relevant statutes are also set out along with a principled analysis of them.

In addition to cross-references to further discussion in the leading textbooks, an innovative feature is the summary of leading academic articles.

Andrew Burrows is Professor of the Law of England at the University of Oxford, UK.

June 2020 | 9781509936144 | 960pp | Pbk | RRP: £38.99

SEVENTH EDITION

Great Debates in Tort Law

Jonathan Morgan

An introduction to the more advanced thinking on tort law, designed to help students 'get under the skin' of the topic and build their critical thinking and analysis skills. Each chapter is structured around key questions and debates that provoke deeper thought and, ultimately, a clearer understanding. It features summaries of the views of notable experts on key topics and each chapter ends with a list of guided further reading. Ideal for both undergraduate and postgraduate modules in tort law.

Jonathan Morgan is Reader in English Law, University of Cambridge, and a Fellow of Corpus Christi College, UK.

November 2022 | 9781509961351 | 392pp | Pbk | RRP: £31.99

THIRD EDITION

Great Debates in Contract Law

Jonathan Morgan

Written by subject specialist Jonathan Morgan, this textbook provides an engaging introduction to the more advanced writings on contract law, designed to help students 'get under the skin' of the topic and build their critical thinking and analysis skills. Each chapter is structured around key questions and debates that provoke deeper thought and, ultimately, a clearer understanding. This extensively rewritten 3rd edition includes substantial coverage of 'no oral modification' clauses, substantive fairness, regulation of standard-form contracts, and remoteness of damage in contract. It is the ideal companion for students determined to excel in both their coursework and exams.

Jonathan Morgan is Reader in English Law, University of Cambridge, and a Fellow of Corpus Christi College, UK.

April 2020 | 9781352009989 | 360pp | Pbk | RRP: £32.99

THIRTEENTH EDITION

Criminal Law

Jonathan Herring

Written by one of the UK's leading experts, the 13th edition of this bestselling textbook provides a straightforward account of criminal law. It introduces current debates about the law's nature, scope and functions and discusses wider controversies surrounding the basic doctrines. This new edition explores recent developments in case law and changes to the Domestic Violence Act 2021, with violence against women highlighted as a key theme in criminal law. There is also a discussion about recent developments in the "rough sex defence"; defences to criminal damage; causation; and the new offence of strangulation and consent in abusive relationships.

Jonathan Herring is Professor of Law at the University of Oxford and Fellow in Law at Exeter College, Oxford, UK.

May 2023 | 9781350356542 | 432pp | Pbk | RRP: £33.99

EIGHTH EDITION

Simester and Sullivan's Criminal Law

Theory and Doctrine

J J Child, A P Simester, J R Spencer, F Stark and G J Virgo

This account of modern English criminal law combines detailed exposition and analysis of the law with careful exploration of its theoretical underpinnings. It covers all subjects taught at undergraduate level. Updates to the 8th edition include analysis of the Assaults on Emergency Workers Act 2018 and the Domestic Abuse Act.

J J Child is Professor of Criminal Law at Birmingham Law School, UK.

A P Simester is Amaladass Professor of Criminal Justice and Co-Director of the Centre for Legal Theory at the National University of Singapore, and Edmund-Davies Professor of Criminal Law at King's College London, UK.

J R Spencer is Professor Emeritus of Law in the Law Faculty at the University of Cambridge and a Bye-Fellow at Murray Edwards College, Cambridge, UK. F Stark is Associate Professor of Law at the University of Cambridge and a Fellow of Jesus College, Cambridge, UK. G J Virgo is Professor of English Private Law at the University of Cambridge and a Fellow of Downing College, Cambridge, UK.

September 2022 | 9781509964277 | 1104pp | Pbk | RRP: £42.99

SEVENTH EDITION

Sentencing and Criminal Justice

Andrew Ashworth and Rory Kelly

This revised edition focuses on major developments in sentencing law, practice and theory. Sentencing in England and Wales is now dominated by Sentencing Council guidelines, and scrutiny of those guidelines is central to this book. Issues of principle are identified and discussed, including the constitutional position of the Sentencing Council; the meaning of, and challenges to, proportionality; and the sentencing of BAME offenders and women offenders.

The book welcomes the new Sentencing Code, introduced as the Sentencing Act 2020, and critically examines the government's plans for sentencing reform, set out in the 2020 White Paper A Smarter Approach to Sentencing.

Andrew Ashworth is Emeritus Professor of Law at the University of Oxford, UK. Rory Kelly is Lecturer in Criminal Evidence and Criminal Law at University College London, UK.

August 2021 | 9781509936281 | 536pp | Pbk | RRP: £39.99

FOURTH EDITION

Great Debates in Criminal Law

Jonathan Herring

With chapters structured around key questions and debates, and including a list of guided further reading, this textbook is an introduction to more advanced writings on criminal law, primarily designed to allow students to think critically and analyse specific topics.

New to this Edition:

- A new debate on the law on body modification;
- Fresh discussion of the law on dishonesty;
- Important new case law on causation;
- Detailed discussion of developments on the law on accessory; and
- Significant developments on the law on sexual offences.

Jonathan Herring is Professor of Law at the University of Oxford and Fellow in Law at Exeter College, Oxford, UK.

June 2020 | 9781352010237 | 304pp | Pbk | RRP: £32.99

ENERGY, ENVIRONMENTAL AND NATURAL RESOURCES LAW

NINTH EDITION

Krämer's EU Environmental Law

Ludwig Krämer with Christopher Badger

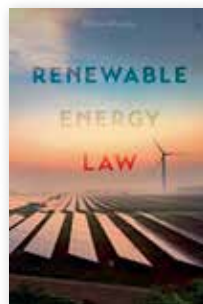

The new edition of this essential book details the present state of EU environmental law as it has developed over the last 50 years. The author was personally involved in its making and enforcement, having worked for more than 30 years in the environmental department of the European Commission. The book provides therefore unique insights into this complex field. New chapters elaborate on the relationship between UK and EU law after Brexit (written by Christopher Badger) and on the global effect of EU environmental law and policy.

The book is indispensable reading for students, researchers, and practising lawyers alike.

Ludwig Krämer is former judge at the Landgericht Kiel, Germany, and former Head of Unit for legal questions, waste management and environmental governance at the DG Environment of the European Commission. Christopher Badger is a barrister at 6 Pump Court, UK.

May 2024 | 9781509969074 | 640pp | Pbk | RRP: £44.99

Renewable Energy Law

Olivia Woolley

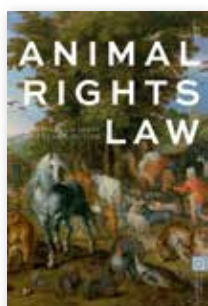

This is the first textbook to provide a clear understanding of law's role in promoting the global growth of renewable energy production and consumption.

The book introduces readers to the main legal frameworks shaping the rise of renewables. Clear explanations of challenges commonly confronting renewable developments and the legal responses to them aid readers' understanding whatever their background. The author, a leading researcher in energy and environmental law, has drawn on 10 years' experience of developing and teaching research-led courses on renewable energy law to produce an authoritative but accessible work.

Olivia Woolley is Associate Professor in Biolaw at Durham Law School, UK.

April 2023 | 9781509936472 | 280pp | Pbk | RRP: £32.99

Animal Rights Law

Raffael N Fasel and Sean C Butler

This pioneering book tells readers everything they need to know about animal rights law.

Using straightforward examples from over 30 legal systems, the book takes the reader from the earliest anti-cruelty laws to recent attempts to grant basic rights and personhood to animals. It explains the ethics, legal theory, and social issues behind animal rights and connected topics such as property, dignity, and human rights.

Rich in exercises and study aids, this easy-to-use introduction is a prime resource for students and for anyone else who wants to understand how the law protects animals.

Raffael N Fasel is Affiliated Lecturer in the Faculty of Law, University of Cambridge, UK, and a Senior Researcher in Law at the University of Zurich, Switzerland. Sean C Butler is a Fellow of St Edmund's College, Cambridge, UK, and Affiliated Lecturer in the Faculty of Law, University of Cambridge, UK.

February 2023 | 9781509956104 | 240pp | Pbk | RRP: £24.99

EQUITY AND TRUSTS

Key Ideas in Trusts Law

Nicholas J McBride

This book provides an in-depth and easy to understand account of a subject that students often find dauntingly difficult to master.

With references to almost 150 books and articles, and almost 150 cases, this book will save students a huge amount of time in terms of developing a sophisticated knowledge of the past, present and potential futures of trusts law both in England & Wales, and across the world, as well as the academic and judicial debates that surround this area of law.

Nicholas J McBride is Fellow of Pembroke College, University of Cambridge, UK.

June 2023 | 9781509938698 | 144pp | Pbk | RRP: £12.99

EUROPEAN LAW

European Union Law in Context

Ester Herlin-Karnell, Gerard Conway and Aravind Ganesh

This new textbook offers an explanatory and contextual view of EU law and its impact. Beginning by setting the scene of EU integration. It goes on to explore the constitutional framework, and looks at specific questions of competences, accountability, legitimacy, enforcement, human rights, as well as the general principles of EU law and citizenship rights. It looks at sectors such as competition law, free movement and the growing area of freedom, security and justice. Finally, it looks at the external dimension of EU law and the role of the EU in the world today.

Ester Herlin-Karnell is Professor of EU law at the University of Gothenburg, Sweden. Gerard Conway is Senior Lecturer in Law at Brunel University London, UK. Aravind Ganesh is a researcher at Faculty of Law, Maastricht University, the Netherlands.

September 2021 | 9781849467018 | 288pp | Pbk | RRP: £31.99

Great Debates in EU Law

Jeremias Adams-Prassl and Sanja Bogojevic

Great Debates in EU Law provides a lively introduction to the core dilemmas and tensions in Union law. Going beyond mere description of substantial and constitutional elements, the text encourages students to contextualise their understanding of the subject and think critically about the contemporary debates alive in the field.

In doing so, the text brings the subject matter to life and encourages a depth of understanding only achieved by the type of discussion formerly relegated to monographs and journals. Engaging with questions such as "Is EU law-making overly centralised?", it is the ideal text for students determined to excel.

Jeremias Adams-Prassl is Professor of Law at Magdalen College, University of Oxford, UK, and Deputy Director of the Institute of European and Comparative Law. Sanja Bogojevic is Fellow and Associate Professor of Law at Lady Margaret Hall and University of Oxford, UK.

FAMILY LAW

TENTH EDITION

Family Law

Samantha Davey

This popular, long-established textbook provides a clear and engaging account of a fascinating and dynamic subject, while also introducing current debates about the nature, scope and functions of the law, and discussing controversies surrounding the basic doctrines by placing them in a wider context. The book takes an applied approach and provides real life examples to illustrate how the law works in practice

New to this Edition:

- In-depth information on new reforms to the law on domestic violence, now more appropriately referred to as 'domestic abuse';
- Fully updated case law, particularly in respect of Supreme Court developments in the areas of divorce and civil partnership;
- Overview and analysis of the government's proposed reforms to the law on divorce;
- Up-to-date statistics; and
- A discussion question in each chapter, with suggested ways to approach it on the companion website.

Samantha Davey is Lecturer in Law at the University of Essex, UK.

Human Rights at Work

Reimagining Employment Law

Alan Bogg, Hugh Collins, ACL Davies and Virginia Mantouvalou

This textbook provides a detailed examination of the application of human rights law to employment and industrial relations. Should female employees be entitled to wear a headscarf in the workplace for religious reasons? Can it ever be right for an employer to dismiss someone for personal Facebook posts written in their leisure time? What restrictions, if any, should be placed on the right to strike? This innovative textbook provides an entry point for exploring these and other topical issues, enabling students to analyse the applicability of human rights to disputes between employers and workers in the UK.

Alan Bogg is Professor of Labour Law at the University of Bristol, UK. Hugh Collins is the Cassel Chair of Commercial Law at the London School of Economics and Political Science, UK. ACL Davies is Professor of Law and Public Policy at the University of Oxford, UK. Virginia Mantouvalou is Professor of Human Rights and Labour Law at University College London, UK.

Discrimination Law

Text, Cases and Materials

Aileen McColgan KC

This textbook offers comprehensive coverage of the Equality Act 2010 and of the equality aspects of the Human Rights Act 1998 and European Convention on Human Rights. It encourages critical analysis of equality law to equip the reader with an understanding of the enduring challenges that frame equality law and contemporary responses to those challenges.

For undergraduates studying discrimination law, the book provides a one-stop shop. This book is also a key core text for any postgraduate discrimination law course and will provide those engaged in research with a solid base for further independent study.

Aileen McColgan KC is a barrister at 11KBW, London, UK.

April 2023 | 9781849462464 | 816pp | Pbk | RRP: £49.99

Deakin and Morris' Labour Law

Zoe Adams, Catherine Barnard, Simon Deakin and Sarah Fraser Butlin

Deakin and Morris' Labour Law, a work cited as authoritative in the higher appellate courts of several jurisdictions, provides a comprehensive analysis of current British labour law, including collective bargaining, international labour standards, and human rights.

The new edition highlights important new developments in the content of the law, and in its wider social, economic and policy context. Thus the consequences of Brexit are considered along with the emerging effects of the Covid-19 crisis, the increasing digitisation of work, and the implications for policy of debates over the role of the law in constituting and regulating the labour market.

Zoe Adams is Junior Research Fellow at King's College Cambridge, UK. Catherine Barnard is Professor of European Union and Labour Law at the University of Cambridge, UK. Simon Deakin is Professor of Law and Fellow of Peterhouse, University of Cambridge, UK. Sarah Fraser Butlin is a practising barrister at Cloisters Chambers and Affiliated Lecturer with the Law Faculty, University of Cambridge, UK.

TENTH EDITION

Employment Law

Deborah J Lockton and Tom Brown

A revised new edition of a popular and long-established textbook, updated to include the most relevant developments in employment law today. Reinforced with summaries, exercises and extensive further reading, it helps students get to grips with the subject.

New to this Edition:

- A new section on employees and workers in the gig economy and modern day slavery;
- Brand new section on whistleblowing; and
- New 'hot topics' sections that look in greater depth at some of the most vexed legal questions of our time, provoking further discussion and research.

Deborah J Lockton was formerly Professor of Employment Law at De Montfort University, UK. Tom Brown is a practising barrister at Cloisters Chambers, UK.

April 2020 | 9781352010022 | 513pp | Pbk | RRP: £43.99

FOURTH EDITION

The Ethics and Conduct of Lawyers in England and Wales

Andrew Boon

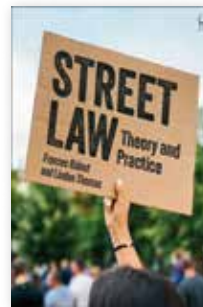

The 4th edition of this respected textbook examines the regulation and conduct of lawyers in England and Wales and addresses new developments in the field, including those in international practice, sexual misconduct and environmental issues. Focusing on the practice of, and interrelationship between, solicitors and barristers, it provides background to current arrangements while exploring contemporary rules of conduct, systems of regulation, and controversies.

The 4 main parts cover client duties, wider obligations, key contexts, and regulation. The approach throughout is socio-legal. While the essential law is described, relevant social science research informs consideration of issues and debates.

Andrew Boon is Professor of Law at City, University of London, UK.

November 2023 | 9781509971763 | 504pp | Pbk | RRP: £44.99

THIRD EDITION

What About Law?

Studying Law at University

Catherine Barnard, Janet O'Sullivan and Graham Virgo

This is the ultimate book for students interested in studying law. The new edition has been updated to show the reality of studying law today, after Brexit and significant constitutional law reform.

Key changes to all the other compulsory subjects are also included. It retains its basic structure and approach, taking cases from each subject to illustrate legal issues and methodologies. The writing style is accessible; with novices to law firmly in mind. Showing that studying law is fun, intellectually stimulating and challenging, it is a must read for every student considering law.

Catherine Barnard is Professor of EU Law and Employment Law, Janet O'Sullivan is Senior Lecturer in Law and Graham Virgo is Professor of English Private Law, all at the University of Cambridge, UK.

SECOND EDITION

The Practical Guide to Mooting

Jeffrey Hill

The new edition of this textbook is a must-read for all students involved in mooting. Fully updated and revised, it provides clear and compelling advice on every aspect of mooting.

The book covers:

- key aspects of the legal system;

- the way in which moots are assessed;
- what the judges are looking for;
- how to structure a legal argument; and
- how to prepare a skeleton argument and bundles.

The text is accompanied by videos of Supreme Court hearings so that students can learn from, and emulate, the advocacy skills of the most eminent advocates and lawyers.

Jeffrey Hill is Professional Consultant at the Faculty of Law of the Chinese University of Hong Kong and Visiting Senior Lecturer in Law at Manchester Metropolitan University, UK.

The Lawyer's Style Guide

A Student and Practitioner Guide

Peter Butt

Clarity and precision in legal writing is an essential skill in the practise and study of law. This book offers a straightforward, practical guide to effective legal usage from a world-leading expert.

The book catalogues existing legal usage, topic by topic, phrase by phrase, word by word. It then scrutinises each use, suggesting the best usage.

Entries are arranged alphabetically and cover 3 broad areas: legal concepts, practical usage, and words and phrases. Each opens with a clear definition of the term, followed by examples of how the entry is commonly used. Entries also cover grammatical questions such as the best use of abbreviations and punctuation.

Peter Butt is Emeritus Professor of Law, University of Sydney. He was the founding director of the Centre for Plain Legal Language at the University of Sydney, Australia.

February 2021 | 9781509936243 | 968pp | Pbk | RRP: £59.99

LEGAL HISTORY

A Legal History for Australia

Sarah McKibbin, Libby Connors and Marcus Harmes

A Legal History for Australia is a contemporary legal history book for Australian law students, written in an engaging style and rich with learning features and illustrations. The writers are a unique combination of talents, bringing together their fields of research and teaching in Australian history, British constitutional history and modern Australian law.

It introduces students to the key aspects of history which are essential to an understanding of the role and function of Australia's legal system and the English law which came to Australia in 1788.

Sarah McKibbin is Lecturer in Law, and Libby Connors and Marcus Harmes are Associate Professors, all at the University of Southern Queensland, Australia.

August 2021 | 9781509939572 | 392pp | Pbk | RRP: £33.99

English Legal Histories

Ian Ward

English Legal Histories is an exciting and innovative approach to the study of English law.

Written in an accessible style, designed for both a student and a broader audience, it takes the reader beyond the narrower confines of legal doctrines and cases, and invites them to consider the myriad contexts within which English law has been shaped; the politics, the economics, the art, the poetry.

Reaching from the Reformation through to the age of Reform, it tells stories, the 'histories', of English law. Histories of the constitution and government, of crime and contracts, tort and trespass, property and equity. Of the people who made that law, those who wrote it, and those who suffered it.

Ian Ward is Professor of Law at Newcastle University, UK.

January 2020 | 9781509912292 | 648pp | Pbk | RRP: £100

LEGAL PHILOSOPHY

THIRD EDITION

Modern Jurisprudence

A Philosophical Guide

Sean Coyle

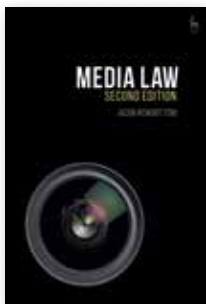

This textbook presents a clear exploration of the historical developments and ideas that give modern thinking its distinctive shape. It guides students through the rival standpoints on jurisprudence from the origins of Western jurisprudential thought and the classical tradition to the emergence of 'modern' political thought.

Chapters on Hart, Fuller, Rawls, Dworkin and Finnis lead the reader systematically through the terrain of modern legal philosophy, tracing the issues back to fundamental questions of philosophy, and indicating lines of criticism that result in a fresh perspective on the subject.

Sean Coyle is Professor of Jurisprudence at the University of Birmingham, UK.

June 2022 | 9781509948901 | 312pp | Pbk | RRP: £31.99

MEDIA LAW

SECOND EDITION

Media Law

Jacob Rowbottom

The 2nd edition of this groundbreaking book examines the protection of personal rights to reputation and privacy, the administration of justice, the role of government censorship, the protection of the newsgathering process, the regulation of the media and the impact of digital communications. The analysis is grounded in an account of media freedom that looks at the important democratic functions performed by the media and journalism. Examining various key themes, the book shows how those functions continue to evolve in a changing political culture.

Authoritative and accessible, the book is essential reading for students and scholars of media law.

Jacob Rowbottom is Professor of Law at the Faculty of Law, University of Oxford, UK, and a Fellow of University College, Oxford, UK.

March 2024 | 9781509970353 | 496pp | Pbk | RRP: £36.99

PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW

FOURTH EDITION

European Private International Law

Commercial Litigation in the EU

Geert van Calster

This classic textbook provides a thorough overview of European private international law. It is essential reading for both practitioners and students of private international law and transnational litigation, wherever they may be located: the European rules extend beyond European shores.

Opening with foundational questions, the book clearly explains the subject's central tenets: the Brussels I, Rome I and Rome II Regulations (jurisdiction, applicable law for contracts and tort).

Drawing on the author's rich experience, the new edition retains the book's hallmarks of insight and clarity of expression ensuring it maintains its position as the leading textbook in the field.

Geert van Calster is Professor Ordinarius at KU Leuven, Belgium, and visiting professor at King's College London, UK, and Monash University, Australia. He is a practising member of the Belgian Bar.

January 2024 | 9781509970919 | 576pp | Pbk | RRP: £39.99

PROPERTY LAW

THIRD EDITION

Great Debates in Land Law

David Cowan, Lorna Fox O'Mahony and Neil Cobb

An ambitious and engaging introduction to the more advanced writings on land law, primarily designed to allow students to 'get under the skin' of the topic and begin to build their critical thinking and analysis skills. Each chapter is structured around key questions and debates that provoke deeper thought and, ultimately, a clearer understanding. This edition illustrates the contemporary debates which are currently going on among those working in and shaping the area. The text features summaries of the views of notable experts on key topics and each chapter ends with a list of guided further reading.

David Cowan is Professor of Law and Public Policy at the University of Bristol, UK. Lorna Fox O'Mahony is Professor of Law at the University of Essex, UK. Neil Cobb is Senior Lecturer in Law at the University of Manchester, UK.

PUBLIC INTERNATIONAL LAW

THIRD EDITION

The International Law of the Sea

Donald R Rothwell and Tim Stephens

The 3rd edition of this acclaimed text has been thoroughly revised and updated, and now incorporates a dedicated chapter on natural and artificial islands. All of the main areas of the law of the sea are addressed including the foundations and sources of the law, the nature and extent of the maritime zones, the delimitation of overlapping maritime boundaries, the place of archipelagic and other special states in the law of the sea, navigational rights and freedoms, military activities at sea, marine scientific research, and marine resource and conservation issues such as fisheries, marine environmental protection and dispute settlement.

Donald R Rothwell is Professor of International Law at the Australian National University, Canberra, Australia. Tim Stephens is Professor of International Law at the University of Sydney, Australia.

August 2023 | 9781509958382 | 656pp | Pbk | RRP: £49.99

The Settlement of International Disputes

Basic Documents

Edited by Christian J Tams and Antonios Tzanakopoulos

This book curates, edits and categorises the key primary sources in international dispute settlement allowing students to engage with the material. It is the only single source covering multilateral treaties; special agreements; compromissory clauses and resolutions of international organisations.

The 2nd edition covers the key case law developments in this rapidly changing field, as well as bilateral/multilateral treaties. Documents from the first edition are up to date, including new practice directions of the ICJ, the Climate Change (Paris Agreement) and the revised UNCITRAL rules. New documents introduced include the 1992 Agenda for Peace and GA Res 57/26

Christian J Tams is Professor of International Law at the University of Glasgow, UK. Antonios Tzanakopoulos is Lecturer in Public International Law at the University of Oxford, UK.

Jus ad Bellum

The Law on Inter-State Use of Force
Stuart Casey-Maslen

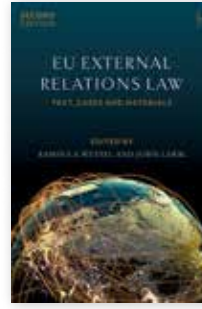

This work expounds, for those in practice and beyond, the rules of international law governing the inter-state use of force. The book clarifies the law as it stands today, explaining its many complexities and controversies, such as when non-state actors may be attacked in another state and when consent is validly given to foreign intervention. The interrelationships between jus ad bellum and the law of armed conflict/international humanitarian law, the law of neutrality, and international human rights law are also illuminated, along with important concepts such as the 'responsibility to protect' and humanitarian intervention.

Stuart Casey-Maslen is Honorary Professor at the University of Pretoria, South Africa.

SECOND EDITION

EU External Relations Law
Text, Cases and Materials

Edited by Ramses A Wessel
and Joris Larik

The first edition of this seminal textbook made a significant impact on the teaching of EU external relations law. Taking a 'text, cases and materials' approach, it allows students to gain a thorough understanding of the key tenets of EU law in this area, their judicial interpretation and scholarly appraisal. The authors' commentary and analysis ensures that students have the necessary guidance to properly position and digest these materials. Each chapter concludes with a section entitled 'The Big Picture of EU External Relations Law', which weaves together the diverse and complex materials into a coherent whole and stimulates critical discussion.

Ramses A Wessel is Professor of European Law at the University of Groningen, the Netherlands. Joris Larik is Assistant Professor of Comparative, EU and International Law at Leiden University, the Netherlands.

TAX LAW

Key Ideas in Tax Law

Julian Ghosh KC

This book provides a short and clear guide to key ideas which underpin the UK tax code and illustrates the wider political and economic issues students need to know about when studying tax law. Some of these key ideas are controversial and the subject of much discussion and debate. Readers will come away with a clear understanding of the architecture of the UK tax code, despite its (very real) complexity.

Julian Ghosh KC is a Bye-Fellow of Peterhouse, Cambridge and a Preceptor of Corpus Christi, Cambridge, UK. He is also a practicing tax counsel at One Essex Court, an Ordinary Bencher of Lincoln's Inn, and a Visiting Professor of King's College London. Julian is also a Judge of the First-Tier Tax Tribunal and a Deputy Judge of the Upper Tribunal.
